

If you wake up at night and there's smoke in your room, or if the fire alarm is going off, don't sit up! Instead, rollover in your bed and slide down to the floor. Smoke and heat rises, so we want to stay low and not breathe in all that junk. Rollout of bed, do the fire crawl, and get out of the house quick. Don't stop for anything!

