

Always remember, just because one car stops to let you cross, it doesn't mean that others will! Sometimes another car behind the first one might try to pass, or someone in a hurry may come from another direction. Always stop at the edge of the car waving you by and look all around again to make sure it's safe to continue on.

