

Whenever kids are out and about, whether it be walking, riding a bike, or scooting along, it's very important to keep an eye on your surroundings. There are all sorts of unexpected hazards that could pop up. A dog could run out in front of you. A car could swerve towards you. All kinds of things could happen. So pay attention to your surroundings, and always remember: if you ever have to swerve to avoid something, always swerve AWAY from the road! Draw in some other hazards you can think of:
