Honesty

Honesty means being truthful and fair in your dealings with others. It's about being sincere, straightforward, and adhering to the facts.

Give me an example of honesty: _____

_____

Why is honesty important? _____

_____

_____

What might happen if you're not honest with people? _____

_____

In truth, nobody is perfectly honest all the time. Sometimes we lie to avoid hurting someone's feelings, like saying we like their dress even if we don't. Sometimes we stretch the truth in harmless ways. Describe a time when NOT being completely honest would be okay:

_____

_____

Now describe a time when being dishonest would be wrong: _____
